Notes:

- I. Eligibility Criteria
In accordance with Article 3 of NTU Regulations Governing Direct-Entry Ph.D. Programs, eligible applicants must meet the following criteria:
- A. Attaining a cumulative GPA in the top third of their associated academic program over the completed period of studies. Each academic program may rank students based on their average grades in required courses, rather than their overall academic grades, and may set more rigorous requirements; or
 - B. Demonstrating outstanding academic achievement as recognized by the admitting academic program with justifiable cause.
- II. Required Documentation
Eligible applicants must submit the following documents to the relevant department office:
- A. Completed "Application for Direct-Entry Ph.D. Program" form
 - B. For undergraduate students: academic transcripts for all semesters; for graduate students: academic transcripts for at least one semester
 - C. Two recommendation letters from faculty members at the level of assistant professor or above
 - D. Additional documentation specified by departments, institutes, or degree programs
- III. Submission Deadline
From March 24 to March 31, eligible applicants should submit all required documentation to respective departments, institutes, or degree programs that offer Ph.D. programs.
- IV. The Acceptance Lists will be announced on Graduate Academic Affairs Division website on May 18.
After admission, you will be enrolled as a first-year Ph.D. student.
- V. According to Article 7 of NTU Regulations Governing Direct-Entry Doctoral Degree Programs: A student's status at their home university shall be revoked upon admission to a direct-entry Ph.D. program at another university.
- VI. According to Article 11 of NTU Regulations Governing Direct-Entry Doctoral Degree Programs: A master's student approved by the University to pursue a doctoral degree may not take the degree examination held by their original master's program unless they apply to revoke their status as a direct-entry Ph.D. student.
- VII. According to Article 66-1 of NTU Academic Regulations: A student who has been admitted as a freshman to multiple academic programs within the same school system in the same academic year shall only choose one academic program to enroll for study; otherwise, their admission will be canceled.
- VIII. Failure to complete online confirmation by the specified deadline will result in cancelation of admission.
