

Details about Checking Grades, Exploration Credits Application & Leave-School Application for Graduates

To all colleagues and students:

- 1. The Office of Academic Affairs has required all teachers to submit the semester grades no later than January 5 of 2026. As stipulated, the Office of Academic Affairs will announce the due date for submitting 50% of course grades on January 20.
- 2. For late submission of grades, the final submission deadline is February 23 of 2026. If no submission is made past the deadline, student's grade for the course will be registered as X (not graded due to unexcused absences or other reasons) and will be a factor for student's class ranking and expulsion.
- 3. Application of exploration credits will start on December 22, 2025 and ends on February 28 pm11:59, 2026. First-year and second-year undergraduate students who want to apply for exploration credits should submit an online application in Grade and Ranking Inquiry and Exploration Credit Application System. Please note that If your grade for the course that you plan to designated as exploration credits is "NG (No grade reported)", you cannot submit your application of exploration credits. You can submit the application after your grade for the course is finalized.
- 4. Starting at 15:00, December 22 of 2025, all students are able to check the grades with the student ID card at the Office of Academic Affairs.
Starting at 15:00, December 22 of 2025, all students are able to check the grades for the courses of which they have completed the end-of-semester course evaluation surveys.
Starting at 15:00, January 7 of 2026, all students are able to check the grades online.
- 5. Starting from Fall 2024, the semester grade report will not be mailed. Please check your grades online. For semester transcripts, please apply directly at the self-service kiosk. One free semester transcript is available per semester.
- 6. Starting at 15:00, March 11 of 2026, students are able to apply for the Certification of Semester Class Ranking for Fall 2025.
